world that He gave up His only begotten Son, so whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Shalom.

“The cost”, let no person be fooled, while the Gospel is freely given as the single most precious Gift one could ever receive, it is by grace alone. Once the Gospel has been heard, whether one chooses to accept or reject it, you will be brought to a place where you realize that in order to even begin comprehend the fullness of the Gospel (teachings of Jesus) it demands renewal. This includes the laying off of a personal self-perverted gospel filled with pride, lawlessness and evil... to make place for The new Person, “I no longer live, but Christ lives in me!” Now if it demands change, what should I do? The truth is... there is nothing you can do. Jesus already atoned for your sin. Should I then just sit back and relax? No, the wise thing would be to trust in Him, rely on and fully depend on Him, follow His footsteps, obey, reverently fear and worship Him, give up your perception of life for His and “He that began a Good work in you will continue it!” It’s not just a cost ... its declaring total spiritual bankruptcy. Besides can you name one thing that you can pin point that you can lay claim to? Even the best accomplishments in your life are due to the fact that you are living ... a life that you did not create but that was given to you by an Awesome God. Being spiritually bankrupt does not sound like fun by any standard, does it? Here is the miracle, Jesus reconciled us with God, the moment we acknowledge sin, repent, and turn to God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit with our whole life, in complete submission. He adopts us as a son or daughter sharing in His infinite riches:

THE EARTH AND THE FULLNESS OF IT, IS THE LORDS!

“Jesus is Love, He truly loves you, realizing that... would you take up your cross and follow Him”?

Word from pastor Daniël Badenhorst

Being in the fortunate and to be envied position to be entrusted with the most valuable message that have ever been spoken and which is the salvation of all mankind's prescription, how can we not progress with our boots of proclaiming the good news to avenues not reached yet?
