world that He gave up His only begotten Son, so whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Shalom.

Spending quality time with God.

When last did you do something random to spend time with God, undivided time? While there is no substitute for reading the Word of God and Prayer, what I am referring to is... having fun, for example; lying under the night sky and enjoying the stars ... or putting on worship music and dancing or singing like David did before the Ark of God- holding nothing back.

That first love with God, I have heard of a man testify that he "Stick God for a movie" he literary bought two of everything and God and him had a joy of a time together. Now I am not suggesting we lose sense of reality that He is a Holy Being, but that we should set time apart to experience the JOY of the Lord. Unleashing the inner kid where time stands still and it's just you and God and God and you. Ask the Lord what is His idea of fun for the both of You. Set a day apart and just enjoy His presence. Isaiah 29:19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the Lord, and the poor among men shall rejoice and exult in the Holy one of Israel. Let's take time to celebrate God.

For the Joy of the Lord is our strength and I am sure the when He returns we that Know Him will not stand passive and serious, rather boil over of excitement on seeing Him Face to face the King of Kings.

"Jesus Is Love, He truly loves you, realizing that... would you take up your cross and follow Him?"
